Part 1

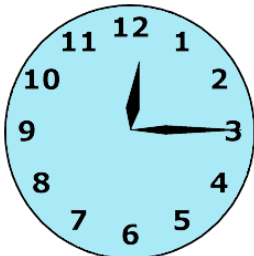

Next page

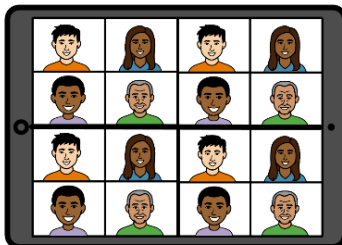

11:00

Part 1 starts at 11 in the morning.

12:15

Part 2 starts at 12.15 in the afternoon.

It is on the internet. We use Zoom for part 1.

It is a video call.

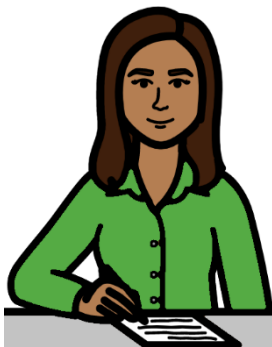

What we will talk about

People do research.

It is about people with disabilities. Like

- what help you need
- do you feel safe?

They write reports. It says what they learned.

They give these reports to

- government
- business
- NDIS
- more places. Like disability groups.

But

Do these people

- read the report
- think about what it says?

Do they change things? Like give you better help.

We want to

- talk to you
- hear your ideas.

We call this meeting

Evidence to action.

Our meeting

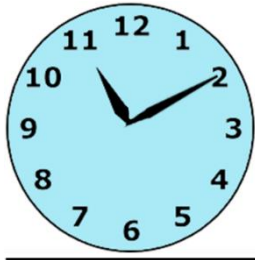

11 in the morning

11:00

Clare Gibellini will say hello. She will

- thank the Aboriginal people
- talk about our last meeting
- talk about this meeting.

Talk 1. Jenny McAllister

She is the minister in charge of the NDIS.

Jenny will talk about

- the government plan.
It is to help people with disabilities
- how research helps the government.

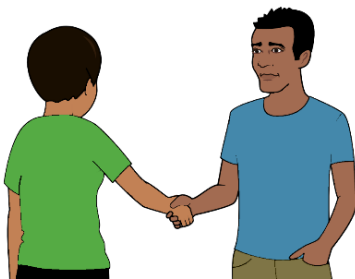

11:20 in the morning

Talk 2. What helps? What does not help?

Jane will talk.

It is about how we can work together. It is the

- people who do research

and

- the government.

Sally will talk.

She will talk about

- how you tell your story. It is for research
- do people read your story?
- does your story help them make good choices?

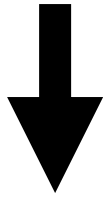

Natalie will talk.

It will be about the law. Like how can research help change the rules?

Then

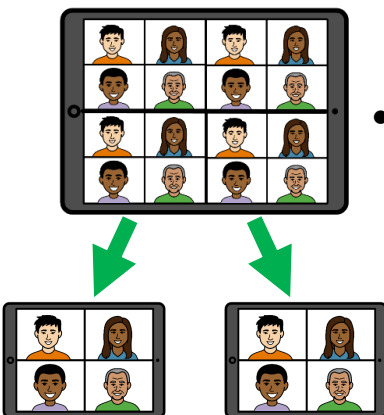

Mary will talk.

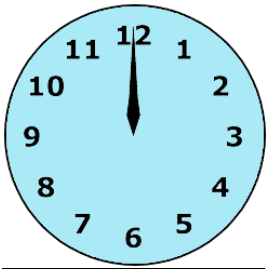

She will talk about

- the big ideas we heard today

and
